Commissioner for Patents

This correspondence is in response to a telephone interview with the applicant's representative who stated that they had elected for a suspended examination on their Request for Continued Examination, and had paid the associated fee and yet had received an action on the merits of the case. After verifying these facts, the examiner has agreed to revoke the Non-final action sent on 1/30/09 and suspend the action for three months. There is no reply necessary to this communication and the time period for reply to the action of 1/30/09 is suspended until the action is re-instated and re-mailed to the applicant. Any Questions please contact Examiner Amy Sterling 571-272-6823.
